Prayer Purpose Peace

Please come and join our community in prayer at OLSH this Sunday, January 29, 2023 at 6:00 p.m. in church. Fr. Mike Schmitz was interviewed about prayer at a FOCUS meeting and said the following: “One of my friends has a saying, “Catholics are not taught to pray. They are taught how to repeat.” It is a good way to start—Jesus was taught the psalms, after all! But it is not enough.”

We will be practicing different techniques and types of prayer to bring us closer to God, deepen our relationship with Him, fulfill our purpose, and to bring us the peace of Christ.

This is for everyone. This is for people who want to pray but feel frustrated or discouraged in their prayer life. It is for people who want to start a prayer life. This is not devotional prayer – we already have many opportunities to pray devotional prayers.

We will gather and pray and then finish with social time. We invite anyone to join us. We offer a special invite to anyone who has not participated in extracurricular spiritual programs.

Deacon Gregg and Doreen Hoyer

With great joy we welcome five new members into our community through Baptism:

*Liam Francis Pierson
Son of Francis & Amanda*

*Nico Daniel Foley
Son of Daniel & Alexandria*

*Brinley Ziegler
Daughter of Joshua & Caitlin*

*Porter Crew Haldeman
Son of Drew & Jaimie*

Welcome to our Parish Community!
